

How is my learning marked?

	Two pink ticks next to the title show that I have achieved all of the learning objectives well.
	One pink tick next to the title shows that I have achieved some of the learning objectives.
	A pink squiggly line in my work shows something I have done well.
	A green squiggly line in my work shows something I need to improve and get better at.
	A sticker or a stamp in my book shows I have made a good effort with my learning.
	A pink circle in my work shows I have used good punctuation or grammar.
	A green circle in my work shows I need to look at my punctuation, grammar or Maths calculation again. Why do you think this has been circled green?
	My next steps could be to use my purple pen to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Answer a question • Circle the correct answer • Correct my work • Think about a question and complete a challenge
	At the end of my work shows what I have done well.

VF = Verbal feedback, G = Group work

Have you put your initials next to your marking to show that you have read it?
